Status of Burials of War of 1812 Veterans Publication: On July 6, 2012, a camera ready copy of the publication was finalized for the publisher. It should be published in the next couple of months. The manuscript of 480 pages will contain paragraphs of information on 4442 War of 1812 veterans buried or memorialized in Virginia. The appendices will show the burials by county and independent cities, a list of cemeteries with general directions, the War of 1812 service and burials sources used as well as other source material used in the compilation. Also, it will contain a by-name index and eighteen illustrations. The availability of the publication will be outlined in the fall newsletter. Mike Lyman, Editor/Compiler
