

OUR ANNUAL CONVENTION WILL BE IN HAMPTON THIS YEAR ON FRIDAY JUNE 21

COMMENCING AT 10AM AT THE HAMPTON HISTORY MUSEUM

The Society of the War of 1812 in the Commonwealth of Virginia would be most honored if you, our members in great numbers would attend our Society's Annual Conference at the Hampton History Museum and at the St John's Episcopal Church in Hampton, Virginia on Friday, June 21, 2013

This event commemorates the 200th anniversary of the battle there and the subsequent British occupation of the City of Hampton and their use of the St Paul's Episcopal Church during the period June 26th to 29th 1813

Some highlights of the conference will be a General Membership meeting at 10am followed by a luncheon at noon with a guest speaker talking about the battle there on 26 June 1813. This will be followed by a guided tour of the museum that contains artifacts of the battle. Following that at two thirty pm will be a plaque unveiling ceremony at the adjacent cemetery of the St Paul's Episcopal Church where interred veterans of the War are honored. This will be followed by a guided tour of the historic church.

Arrangements have been made to share the plaque with the Virginia State Society, U.S. Daughters of 1812 in a joint ceremony. The fourteen memorialized veterans are listed on the draft plaque that follows.
