

Society Finalizes an Addendum to 1812 Vets Buried in VA Book

At the Board of Direction Meeting in Richmond on February 9 2018 the society announced that an addendum to the Burials of War of 1812 Veterans in Virginia book it published in 2012 is being finalized.

The planned publishing date will be in a few months.

The addendum will expand the War of 1812 veterans known burial locations in Virginia by over 900 making the total to exceed 5300. A paragraph of information about each veteran is shown in the book and in this addendum that includes data regarding birth and death dates and places, rank and service units with sources, cemetery location, gravestone inscriptions, spouses names to include parents, veteran parent's names and some of his accomplishment after the war, pension and bounty lands he or his heirs applied for or received.

The cover pages of the book and this addendum are shown below
