

President Dickie represents the Society at the Arlington House, War of 1812 Ceremony, July 28th 2012
See his President's Pen on page two for his description of the ceremony

President Dickie presents the Virginia Society wreath during the ceremony and he is shown as the cannon is fired, a musket salute is given and taps is played.

Right: President Dickie and wife Judy at the Arlington House Above: The Fort McHenry Fife & Drum contingent arrive and perform. Below: the cannon is prepared for firing. See Washington, DC in the background

