

Society Participates in Shockoe Hill Cemetery Ceremony Sep 10, 2017

On September 10, 2017, six members of the War of 1812 Society in the Commonwealth of Virginia at the Shockoe Hill Cemetery in Richmond participated in the unveiling of a new monument and military marker for War of 1812 veteran, Doctor Daniel Norborne Norton. The ceremony was conducted by "The Friends of Shockoe Hill Cemetery" who had invited the War of 1812 society to attend as they had contributed to the cost of the new monument. The invitation and photos taken follow.

Below are photos of the new monument front and back with old gravestone and new military marker

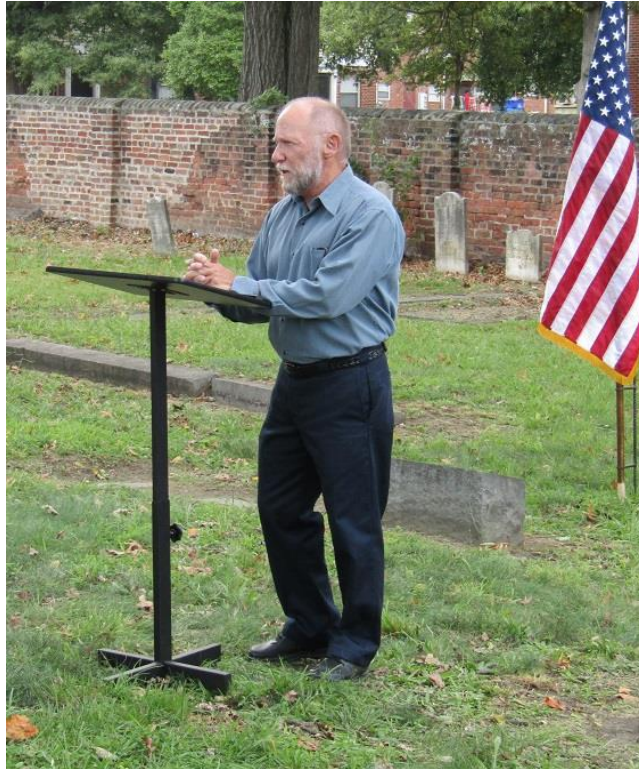

Below are photos taken during the ceremony

War of 1812 member Jeffry Burden past president of the Friends of the Cemetery conducts the ceremony

President of the Friends of Shockoe, Clayton Shepard speaks to the attendees and unveils the monument

Below Past President of the War of 1812 Society, Mike Lyman gives greetings

Below are the War of 1812 wreaths that were posted

Below Hugh Markham and Charles Belfield provide a musket salute

Above the members of the War of 1812 Society gather after the ceremony L/R:

Jeffrey Burden, Hugh Markham, George Beckett, Charles Belfield, Mike Lyman and Taylor Cowardin