

Society Participates in Honoring Veterans in Shockoe Hill Cemetery

Society members Mike Lyman, Past President and member Jeffry Burton, Past President of the Friends of the Cemetery participated in honoring War of 1812 veterans receiving new headstones from the Veterans Administration on Sunday April 29 2018 at the Shockoe Hill cemetery in Richmond. The ceremony was conducted by The Friends of Shockoe Hill Cemetery society in their second annual dedication. Two War of 1812 veterans, Major Bolling Branch and Private Daniel Walker received new gravestones. Several Confederate veterans and a few civilians received new headstones as well during the ceremony. Below is the program and some photos taken

Ensign Henry B. Ellington, Confederate States Navy

Assistant Surgeon Leroy L. Harcum, Stark's Battalion, Confederate Light Artillery

Master's Mate William R. Howle, Confederate States Navy

Assistant Surgeon Nathaniel R. James, 22nd Battalion, Virginia Infantry, CSA

Corporal William H. Ligon, Barr's Battery, Virginia Light Artillery, CSA

Private Edward R. Miller, Company D, 3rd Regt., Richmond Local Defense Troops, CSA

Private William H. Sizer, Jr., Company I, 10th Virginia Cavalry, CSA

Corporal William D. Snead, 2nd Company A, 46th Virginia Infantry, CSA

Private William H. Stewart, Company D, 1st Virginia Infantry, CSA

Private William H. Suter, Hood's Battalion, Virginia Reserves, CSA

Captain James E. Tyler, Company D., 12th Virginia Infantry, CSA

☛ Private Daniel Walker, Battalion of Artillery, Virginia Militia, War of 1812

Lieutenant Peter C. Warwick, Department of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, CSA

Sergeant William J. Wingfield, Company H, 23rd Virginia Infantry, CSA

Private William Witt, Virginia Public Guard

Private Henry F. Wood, Virginia Public Guard

Special Thanks to:

Captain Susan Ellis, United States Naval Reserve

Piper Jeffrey H. Anderson

Above: Jeffry Burton and Mike Lyman and the wreath that was presented

Above Commander Clayton Shepard presides

Above Jeffrey Burton and Barbara New LaGrasse read the names of veterans to be honored

Above Burton reads a British poem suitable for the event. Below flags are folded to be presented to descendants that attended

Above the new gravestone of Major Bowling Branch