

*SOCIETY WILL HOLD ITS ANNUAL MUSTER AT THE GRAVES
MOUNTAIN FARM & LODGES ON JUNE 25, 2022*

The Society of the War of 1812 in the Commonwealth of Virginia will holds its annual muster at the Graves Mountain Farm and Lodges on June 25, 2022. The venue is located near Syria, Virginia, on Route 670 in Madison County, about twenty miles northwest of Orange, Virginia. As usual, there will be a Board of Direction meeting at 10 a.m. followed by a general membership meeting and luncheon 11:30. The speaker for this occasion will be Vice-President General Stuart Butler, who will be speaking on the life and military career of Gen. William Madison, President Madison's younger brother.

Printed below is the announcement distributed to all members by our Treasurer, Shane Newcombe, earlier this month, giving luncheon details and times of meeting, and payment instructions for those coming. This is a new venue for the Society and it is hoped that as many members will attend as possible.

Following the conclusion of the meeting, the Society will be marking the grave of 2nd Surgeon's Mate William Tunstall at the Piedmont Episcopal Church in the town of Madison, Virginia, located at 214 Church Street.
