

*SOCIETY'S BOARD OF DIRECTION MEETS AT COLONIAL
WILLIAMSBURG ON SEPTEMBER 17, 2022*

The Society of the War of 1812 in the Commonwealth of Virginia met at Colonial Williamsburg on September 17, 2022, in conjunction with the Virginia Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. In-coming president, James Green, gaveled the meeting together at 4:35 p.m. in the Cedar Room of the Woodlands Conference Center. The Board discussed a wide variety of subjects and issues concerning the Society as a whole. These included approving the financial report submitted by Treasurer J. Shane Newcombe, ways in which to attract new members, the status of the Society's color guard, upcoming grave marking events, the continuation of the Society's high school essay contest, as well as the place and location of the February meeting 2023. The time and place of the February meeting 2023 is tentatively set for February 3, Friday, at the One James Center, 901 East Cary Street, Richmond, Virginia, on the second floor, at 2 p.m. The final announcement will be made on the Society's website in the near future. The meeting was adjourned at 6:05 p.m.

Attending the meeting were President James Green, Vice President General Paul Walden, Chaplain Thad Hartman, Registrar Hugh Markham, Historian Peter Broadbent, past presidents Mike Lyman, and Stuart Butler, 1st Vice President Kenneth Hawkins, Counsel Carter Furr, Timothy Ahlgrim. Also present were two prospective members (SAR members) Charles Driscoll and John Thomas.

L to R: Peter Broadbent, Tim Ahlgrim, James Green, Thad Hartman, Mike Lyman, John Thomas (prospective member), Hugh Markham, Stuart Butler, and Kenneth Hawkins. Also present, but not pictured, are Paul Walden, Carter Furr, and Charles Driscoll