

SOCIETY LAYS WREATH AT TOMB OF PRESIDENT JOHN TYLER

Members of the The Society of the War of 1812 in Virginia laid a wreath in honor of the 10th President of the United States, John Tyler, on his birthday, March 29, 2023 at historic Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Virginia. President John Tyler served as a captain in the Virginia militia on two occasions during the War of 1812. Also participating in the ceremony was the U.S. Army band from nearby Fort Lee. Brigadier General Isabel Rivera Smith, Deputy Commanding General for the Combined Arms Support Command, at Fort Lee spoke on the President's behalf concerning the tenth president's many accomplishments in state and federal political offices.

Brig. Gen. Smith delivers the President's proclamation

Society president James Green lays the society's wreath

L to R: Stuart Butler, James Green, Mike Lyman, and Hugh Markham

L to R: Mike Lyman and Hugh Markham at President Tyler' tomb

Virginia Society of War of 1812 wreath at Hollywood Cemetery