

SOCIETY AWARDS WAR OF 1812 OUTSTANDING STUDENT AWARD

On April 9, 2024, Past President Stuart L. Butler of the Virginia Society of the War of 1812 had the honor of awarding Cadet Daniel Weaver the General Society's ROTC Outstanding Student Award for his academic record by ranking in the top 25% of his class, his high moral character and his willingness to serve in the U.S. Army upon graduation. He is currently a sophomore attending Christopher Newport University in Newport News, Virginia.

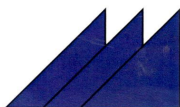

Daniel Weaver is the nephew of 1Lt. Todd Weaver, U.S. Army, who graduated from the College of William and Mary ROTC program and died in Kandahar, Afghanistan, in 2010. The Weaver family has created a memorial foundation on behalf of Lieutenant Todd Weaver. More information about this memorial and this remarkable family can be found at: 1LtToddWeaver.org

Daniel Weaver receiving award from Past President Stuart L. Butler, 9 April 2024

Spring 2024
ROTC Awards Ceremony

Department of Military Science of
Christopher Newport University

Revolutionary Guard Battalion
9 April 2024
Gaines Theater, Freeman Center
Christopher Newport University

Presentation of Awards

The Special Forces Exceptional Leadership Award

Presented to

CDT Katherine Bochonok

Society of the War of 1812

Presented to

CDT Daniel Weaver