

Society Vice President General attends Yorktown Victory Day Celebration

Society of War of 1812 Vice President General James Green attended the annual Yorktown Victory Day Celebration in Yorktown, Virginia, on October 19, 2024. President Green presented a wreath on behalf of the Society at the Grace Episcopal Church where Secretary Thomas Nelson is buried. Nelson commanded the Virginia militia troops at Yorktown and was Virginia's third governor after Thomas Jefferson. Photos of the observance are included here all taken by Society member Thomas Ahlgrim.
