SECRETARY PAUL WALDEN REPRESENTS THE VIRGINIA SOCIETY AT THE TRIENNIAL MEETING AT PERRYSBURG, OHIO

Virginia Society's Secretary, Paul Walden, attended the General Society Triennial Meeting at Perrysburg, Ohio, September 4-5, 2026. He represented the Virginia Society at the event. Seen here in the enclosed photograph, Walden stands beside the Virginia Monument commemorating those soldiers from the Old Dominion who died while serving in the state of Ohio during the War of 1812. The monument was funded by the Commonwealth of Virginia in 2015 and installed at Fort Meigs on May 23, 2015. Also attached is a photo of the monument showing current President of the Virginia Society, Stuart Butler, and Thad Tate, then chaplain of the Society, at the dedication.
Paul Walden is also now the Deputy Governor of the General Society.

Secretary Walden at the Virginia Monument at Fort Meigs, Ohio

L to R: Stuart Butler and Thad Tate